

Lubrication Oil Sampling Station

OVERVIEW

Lubrication oil sampling stations provide a convenient and cost-effective means of gathering fluid samples from a running unit under test.

KEY FEATURES

- Custom engineered for required footprint
- Integrated with data acquisition and controls
- Flexible solutions tailored to required
- Turn-key system delivery
- High temperature hoses allow samples to be taken during test process
- Magnetic doors allow easy entry
- Enclosure keeps area around sampling station to clean allowing it to be placed in convenient location